3x spring walks

from our walking brochure

It's the season when Flemish Brabant literally blossoms to life. The happy hum of bees, the dance of fluttering butterflies, and an ocean of blossoms unfurling in Hageland's fruit orchards... Before you know it, the Green Belt's gardens and parks are awash with colour.

1. Ironstone Walk @ Aarschot

Take a walk through the rust-coloured ironstone accentuated countryside. O Make sure to taste a Hageland wine after your walk.

2. Big Oak Walk @ Bierbeek

Head into Meerdaal Forest from the centre of Bierbeek. Over 1,000 majestic big oaks (with trunks over 2.5 metres around) await.

3. Ter Rijst Walk @ Pepingen

This park is a romantic's dream come true with arch bridges, elegant old trees, and gorgeous vistas. When in bloom, the bluebells, wood anemones, and wild daffodils dapple the park with colour.

What's new?

Expo De Vinck @ Kraainem

Did you know?

Blossoms @ Hageland

The ceramist-sculptor Antoine de Vinck lived and worked in Kraainem for 30 years, from 1954 to 1984. He raised the art of ceramics to a level that saw him recognised as a master both nationally and internationally. More than 70 works by the artist will be on show, from museums and private collections. Some of them have never before been seen by the public, not even in photographs.

📅 14 April to 26 May 2024

📍 Château Jourdain, Kraainem

Every year, the buds of thousands of fruit trees quietly pop open in the Hageland. The Hageland is the region east of the city of Leuven where the rolling landscape is ideal for fruit trees. The result? A beautiful sea of blossoms. That makes it the perfect place for a lovely spring walk through the colours. If you don't want to miss it, plan your visit as soon as possible because the flowers don't stay for very long. Every weekend there is something to experience among the flowers. 🌸
